

The Principles of
"Chelsie Natural Horsemanship"
Consist of 5 Components:

* "Lightness, Politeness, Patience, Consistency, And * * Confidence in Both People and Horses." *

#1.) Lightness: Be as light as possible and never fight the horse.

#2.) Politeness: Always try to be polite so as to never make your horse feel wrong, insulted, or unwilling.

#3.) Patience: Always have patience so as not to get angry or frustrated when working with horses.

#4.) Consistency: Consistency is Key.

#5.) Confidence: You need confidence to learn, and you need to build confidence in your horse.
